Why take part?

This is an incredible opportunity for the winning local Headway affiliated charity or volunteer-led branch to get exposure for their amazing work. The winner will receive their card framed and have their design go into production for our Christmas Card range for 2026.

We will also be declaring the winners in our Headway News and featuring an interview and photo of the winners.

How to enter

This year we have opened up the competition to both local Headway affiliated charity's or volunteer-led branch's, as well as Headway - the brain injury association service user's. This year we are looking for 3 designs/winners, meaning there is more chance of winning!
